RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HONORING AND RECOGNIZING COLBY LA PLACE, SENIOR HAZARDOUS MATERIALS SPECIALIST FOR 21 YEARS OF DEDICATED PUBLIC SERVICE TO SOLANO COUNTY

WHEREAS, Colby La Place began his career with the Department of Resource Management, Environmental Health Division on September 13, 2004, as a Senior Environmental Health Specialist; and

WHEREAS, Mr. La Place has been an integral part of the Hazardous Materials Program for over two decades, serving to safeguard the community by inspecting businesses and enforcing State regulations regarding hazardous materials and waste; and

WHEREAS, Mr. La Place, throughout his career, has shared his institutional knowledge of hazardous materials, especially in regard to refineries and their operations, with the community and fellow regulatory agencies, and has worked to develop and improve regulations to help ensure the safety of our communities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. La Place has, over his years of service, mentored numerous colleagues, both Environmental Health Specialists and Hazardous Materials Specialists, who have benefitted tremendously from his knowledge, support, and guidance; and

WHEREAS, Mr. La Place's compassion and optimism while interacting with people of all backgrounds has enabled him to develop lifelong relationships with his customers and work colleagues, helping them understand and implement the regulatory programs designed to protect public health; and

WHEREAS, over the years, Mr. La Place has fostered a workplace built on positivity and collaboration, resulting in a high standard of hard work and regard for the people served that will continue to influence the Environmental Health Division and the long list of clubs and associations of which Mr. La Place is a member.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors hereby recognizes Colby La Place for 21 years of dedicated public service to Solano County and its citizens, and wishes him a long, healthy, and fruitful retirement and well wishes on future endeavors.
