

Resolution No. 2025-

RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HONORING SHERIFF-CORONER THOMAS A. FERRARA UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE SOLANO COUNTY SHERIFF’S OFFICE WITH OVER 45 YEARS OF DEDICATED PUBLIC SERVICE, INCLUDING 40 YEARS WITH SOLANO COUNTY AND THE LAST 12 YEARS AS THE SOLANO COUNTY SHERIFF-CORONER

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Ferrara began his law enforcement career in 1978 as a police cadet with the Rio Vista Police Department. In 1981, he put himself through San Joaquin Delta College’s first basic peace officer’s academy, after which he served as a reserve police officer with Rio Vista Police Department; and

WHEREAS, in 1983, Thomas A. Ferrara joined the Isleton Police Department as a police officer; and

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Ferrara was hired as a Deputy-Sheriff with the Solano County Sheriff’s Office on December 13, 1984; promoted to Sergeant on October 8, 1995; promoted to Chief Deputy on February 7, 1999; promoted to Captain on July 7, 2002; appointed Undersheriff on December 31, 2006; and appointed Sheriff-Coroner by the Solano County Board of Supervisors on August 14, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Ferrara was subsequently elected to the office of Sheriff-Coroner by the citizens of Solano County on June 3, 2014, and re-elected on June 5, 2018, and June 7, 2022; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Ferrara holds an Associate of Science degree in Administration of Justice from San Joaquin Delta College and a Bachelor of Science degree in Education, Training, and Development from Southern Illinois University and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy’s 205th Session; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Ferrara holds numerous certificates from the California Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST) including Basic, Intermediate, Advanced, Supervisory, Management, and Executive certificates, as well as a certificate in Community Policing. He also completed the Kerr-Hill Management Training Course, the Quantum Leap Leadership Training Academy, and the Josephson School of Ethics where he was certified as an ethics instructor; and

WHEREAS, during his career, Sheriff Ferrara worked, supervised, and managed a majority of the bureaus within the Sheriff’s Office, including Civil, Courts, Internal Affairs, Concealed Carry Weapon (CCW) permitting, and Background Investigations. He also served in numerous special assignments, including as a Field Training Officer, Reserve Air Officer Liaison, member of the recruitment team, Fleet Liaison, and was the department’s first line-level Deputy-Sheriff to serve as a Public Information Officer; and

WHEREAS, as a Sergeant, Thomas A. Ferrara oversaw the merger of the Vallejo Marshal’s Office with the Sheriff’s Office, and as a Chief-Deputy and Captain, he commanded both the Field Operations and Custody Divisions; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure as Sheriff-Coroner, Thomas A. Ferrara relaunched the Resident Deputy Program to provide community-oriented policing in Solano County’s unincorporated areas and entered into a contract to provide law enforcement services to the City of Rio Vista; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Ferrara established a Concealed Carry Weapons (CCW) program that became a model for sheriff’s offices and police departments statewide. Under his leadership, Solano County Sheriff’s Office instituted and hosts an annual statewide Carry Concealed Weapons (CCW) Conference, providing critical training on legislative updates, professional development from industry experts, and a forum for collaboration. Attendance increased each year, reaching more than 280 attendees from 97 different agencies in 2025. The CCW Conference has become a lasting model for training and coordination that will continue to benefit law enforcement and the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Ferrara has overseen significant capital improvement projects for the Sheriff’s Office, including the construction of the Stanton Correctional Facility and Rourke Vocational Training Center at the County’s Claybank campus, Detention Facility Security Electronic Upgrades, Animal Care Shelter upgrades including construction of a new kennel building, and major infrastructure and cell upgrades at the Justice Center Detention Facility; and
