

Definitions

Hotel: A building, portion of a building, or group of buildings containing six or more guest rooms designed, or intended to be used, let or hired out for transient accommodations. A hotel may include accessory uses, such as a commercial kitchen or dining facilities open to the public.

Resort Hotel: A hotel that also provides interrelated visitor services intended to serve the needs of the community and people travelling through the area. Typical uses include but are not limited to: recreation activities/facilities, meeting rooms, banquet facilities, administrative facilities, maintenance and storage facilities, and restaurant and retail uses intended for use by both guests and non-guests.