RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZING APRIL 2025 AS NATIONAL FINANCIAL LITERACY MONTH IN SOLANO COUNTY

WHEREAS, Solano County is committed to supporting initiatives that enhance the well-being of its residents through access to essential knowledge and resources, particularly in the areas of financial literacy and planning; and

WHEREAS, financial literacy is a vital tool for empowering individuals to make informed decisions that affect their economic stability, and understanding retirement planning is an essential component of long-term financial health; and

WHEREAS, Solano First Credit Union, in its merger with Valley Strong Credit Union in 2021, has expanded its footprint across Solano County with locations in Fairfield, Vacaville, and a newly established Northern California Administrative Office, further solidifying its role as a community partner in financial education and planning; and

WHEREAS, as part of its commitment to financial education, Valley Strong Credit Union encourages its members to take proactive steps toward retirement, offering resources, tools, and guidance on saving for the future and securing a stable retirement; and

WHEREAS, Valley Strong Credit Union is hosting one of the four free Financial Literacy Day events in Solano County, providing an invaluable opportunity for local residents to gain essential financial knowledge and skills that will empower them to make informed decisions about their financial futures.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors hereby recognizes April 2025 as National Financial Literacy Month and supports efforts to enhance financial literacy throughout the County, ensuring that residents are equipped to make informed decisions about their financial future.

Dated this 8th day of April 2025
