

Resolution No. 2016-202

RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZING RYAN CAMPBELL, MEMBER OF BOY SCOUT TROOP 180 IN VACAVILLE, CALIFORNIA, ON ACHIEVING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

WHEREAS, the rank of Eagle Scout is the highest award a member of the Boy Scouts of America can receive and represents many years of hard work and dedication. To become an Eagle Scout, one has demonstrated leadership, citizenship, and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, earning the rank of Eagle Scout is not an easy task. Scouts are required to earn at least 21 merit badges, including those of: First Aid, Citizenship in the Community, Citizenship in the Nation, Citizenship in the World, Communication, Environmental Science, Personal Fitness, Camping, Family Life, Personal Management, Emergency Preparedness or Lifesaving, and Hiking. Eagle Scouts also plan, develop, and give leadership to a service project for any community, school or religious organization; and

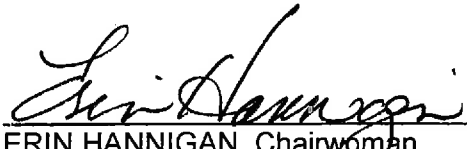

WHEREAS, Ryan strives to live each day by the 12 traits in the Scout Law and adhere to the Scout Oath. A senior in the inaugural class of the Vacaville Early College High School program, he has earned 31 merit badges and will graduate with a high school diploma and an Associates of Science Degree. Ryan chose the Will C. Wood High School music department for his Eagle Scout project. There, Ryan found that cellos and acoustic bass instruments were stored away in deteriorating cases or left fully exposed in a corner of the room. Ryan constructed custom storage racks for safe storage of the instruments. In addition, Ryan volunteers time to his community, notably, with Pink Heals Solano, a cancer awareness organization. As a designated "guardian," Ryan enjoys bringing comfort and happiness to people during their fight against cancer; and

WHEREAS, Ryan is part of a group of young men who have participated in Scouting together since in kindergarten. As Cub Scouts they were the "Scorpion Patrol." Now on the cusp of graduating high school, Ryan and his former Scorpion Patrol troop members are set to participate in the Eagle Court of Honor together.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors does hereby honor Ryan Campbell for his personal achievements and for his contributions to the citizens of Solano County. In addition, we extend our appreciation to his family members, troop leader, and community members that encouraged and inspired Ryan's achievements.

RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZING TRAVIS GETTY, MEMBER OF BOY SCOUT TROOP 180 IN VACAVILLE, CALIFORNIA, ON ACHIEVING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

WHEREAS, the rank of Eagle Scout is the highest award a member of the Boy Scouts of America can receive and represents many years of hard work and dedication. To become an Eagle Scout, one has demonstrated leadership, citizenship, and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, earning the rank of Eagle Scout is not an easy task. Scouts are required to earn at least 21 merit badges, including those of: First Aid, Citizenship in the Community, Citizenship in the Nation, Citizenship in the World, Communication, Environmental Science, Personal Fitness, Camping, Family Life, Personal Management, Emergency Preparedness or Lifesaving, and Hiking. Eagle Scouts also plan, develop, and give leadership to a service project for any community, school or religious organization; and

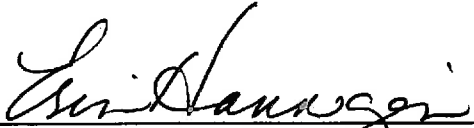

WHEREAS, values such as leadership and loyalty were instilled in Travis beginning with his time as a member of his Cub Scout "Scorpion Patrol." Now, a senior at Vacaville High School, Travis is a member of the varsity football team and was recognized as the 2017 Scholar Athlete through the Great American Rivalry sponsored by the United States Marine Corps. Among his list of accomplishments, which include playing saxophone and skiing, Travis earned 30 merit badges on his way to becoming an Eagle Scout. His Eagle Scout project benefitted the PACE Solano day center in Vallejo. Enlisting the help of his troop, Travis crafted an extensive native plant learning garden, consisting of a variety of drought-tolerant, California-native plants. These plants were labeled to allow others to learn about the state's native plants while providing a pleasant environment for PACE Solano day center participants; and

WHEREAS, Travis is part of a group of young men who have participated in Scouting together since in kindergarten. As Cub Scouts they were the "Scorpion Patrol." Now on the cusp of graduating high school, Travis and his former Scorpion Patrol troop members are set to participate in the Eagle Court of Honor together.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors does hereby honor Travis Getty for his personal achievements and for his contributions to the citizens of Solano County. In addition, we extend our appreciation to his family members, troop leader, and community members that encouraged and inspired Travis' achievements.

RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZING CAMERON GREGSON, MEMBER OF BOY SCOUT TROOP 180 IN VACAVILLE, CALIFORNIA, ON ACHIEVING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

WHEREAS, the rank of Eagle Scout is the highest award a member of the Boy Scouts of America can receive and represents many years of hard work and dedication. To become an Eagle Scout, one has demonstrated leadership, citizenship, and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, earning the rank of Eagle Scout is not an easy task. Scouts are required to earn at least 21 merit badges, including those of: First Aid, Citizenship in the Community, Citizenship in the Nation, Citizenship in the World, Communication, Environmental Science, Personal Fitness, Camping, Family Life, Personal Management, Emergency Preparedness or Lifesaving, and Hiking. Eagle Scouts also plan, develop, and give leadership to a service project for any community, school or religious organization; and

WHEREAS, Cameron is a senior at Las Lomas High School where he is a member of the water polo and baseball teams. On his way to achieving the rank of Eagle Scout, Cameron earned 26 merit badges and held leadership positions including those of Patrol Leader and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader. For his Eagle Scout project, Cameron chose to host a basketball camp for children involved with the Special Olympics. From planning to recruitment of troop members and friends and family to teach skills and run drills, the project included refereeing a basketball game for all of the participants. With sports being an important part of Cameron's life, it was important to him that he identify an Eagle Scout project that would allow many children to have a positive sporting experience; and

WHEREAS, Cameron is part of a group of young men who have participated in Scouting together since in kindergarten. As Cub Scouts they were the "Scorpion Patrol." Now on the cusp of graduating high school, Cameron and his former Scorpion Patrol troop members are set to participate in the Eagle Court of Honor together.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors does hereby honor Cameron Gregson for his personal achievements and for his contributions to the citizens of Solano County. In addition, we extend our appreciation to his family members, troop leader, and community members that encouraged and inspired Cameron's achievements.
