Allocation of IP addresses is limited by American Registry for Internet Numbers. These policies state that use of IP addresses for IP based virtual hosts will not be accepted as justification for new IP addresses when the protocol supports name-based virtual hosts.

1.6 Responsibilities, Obligations, and Representations and Warranties.

1.6.1 Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that: (a) under no circumstances will Genasys or any of its licensors or suppliers be responsible for any loss, damage, or liability arising out of Subscriber Content of any notification sent through the Service, including without limitation any mistakes contained in Subscriber Content or the use or transmission of the content via the Service; (b) Subscriber is solely responsible for all notification content; and (c) Subscriber shall not send notifications to phone numbers that are emergency numbers and other numbers that may not be called using an automated system under applicable law.

1.7 SMS Notifications. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that: (a) notifications sent via SMS may not be delivered to the intended telephone number if such telephone is not in range of a transmission site, or if sufficient network capacity is not available at a particular time and, even within a coverage area, factors beyond the control of Genasys or the wireless carrier may interfere with message delivery, including Subscriber's or its recipient's equipment, terrain, proximity to buildings, foliage, weather or other conditions; (b) urgent notifications may not be timely received and that neither Genasys nor the wireless carrier guarantees that messages will be delivered; and (c) SMS messages to certain numbers can be blocked based on instructions from carriers.

1.8 Open Source Software. Subscriber understands that portions of the Service may have been created using open source software. Use of such open source software is licensed under this Agreement solely in accordance with the applicable open source license and solely in connection with Subscriber's use of the Service. FOR AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT: (i) GENASYS AND ITS LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS MAKE NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES AS TO NON-INFRINGEMENT WITH RESPECT TO ANY OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE USED IN THE SOFTWARE OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICE; (ii) ALL SUCH OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" BY ITS AUTHORS AND ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED BY SUCH THIRD PARTIES; AND, (iii) GENASYS AND ITS LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY LIABILITY ARISING FROM ANY CLAIM BY THAT ANY SUCH OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE INFRINGES ANY THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

1.9 Third Party Offerings.

1.9.1 Third Party Offerings. The Service may contain features designed to interoperate with Third Party Offerings. To use such features, Subscriber may be required to obtain access to such Third Party Offering from its provider. If the provider of any Third-Party Offering ceases to make the Third Party Offering available for interoperation with the corresponding Service features on reasonable terms, Genasys may cease providing such features without entitling Subscriber to any refund, credit, or other compensation. Any use by Subscriber of any such Third Party Offerings, and any exchange of Subscriber Content or other data between Subscriber and any provider of a Third Party Offering, is solely between Subscriber and the applicable provider of the Third Party Offering. Genasys does not warrant or support any Third Party Offering.

1.9.2 Access Codes. To the extent that Genasys requires Subscriber to grant Genasys authorizations, passwords or other user credentials to a Third Party Offering (“Access Codes”) to enable interoperability with the Service, Subscriber shall promptly provide such Access Codes. Genasys shall not share, reassign, divulge or disclose any Access Codes except to Genasys’ employees or contractors specifically engaged in the performance of the Service. Access Codes shall constitute Subscriber’s Confidential Information under this Agreement.

1.10 Accuracy of Subscriber’s Contact Information; Email Notices. Subscriber agrees to provide accurate, current and complete information as necessary for Genasys to communicate with Subscriber from time to time regarding the Service, issue invoices or accept payment, or contact Subscriber for other account-related purposes. Subscriber agrees to keep any online account information current and inform Genasys of any changes in Subscriber’s legal business name, address, email address and phone number. Subscriber agrees to accept emails from Genasys at the e-mail addresses specified by its Users for login purposes. In addition, Subscriber agrees that Genasys may rely and act on all information and instructions provided to Subscriber by Users from the above-specified e-mail address.

1.11 Temporary Suspension. Genasys may temporarily suspend Subscriber’s or its Users’ access to the Service in the event that either Subscriber any of its Users are engaged in, or Genasys in good faith suspects Subscriber or any of its Users are engaged in, any unauthorized conduct (including, but not limited to, any violation of this Agreement). Genasys will attempt to contact Subscriber prior to or contemporaneously with such suspension; provided, however, that Genasys’ exercise of the suspension rights herein shall not be conditioned upon Subscriber’s receipt of any notification. A suspension may take effect for Subscriber’s entire account and Subscriber understands that such suspension would therefore include its Users’ sub-accounts. Subscriber agrees that Genasys shall not be liable to Subscriber, any of its Users, or any other third party if Genasys exercises its suspension rights as permitted by this Section. Upon determining that Subscriber has ceased the unauthorized conduct leading to the temporary suspension to Genasys’ reasonable satisfaction, Genasys shall reinstate Subscriber’s and its Users’ access and use of the Service. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, Genasys’ suspension of the Service is in addition to any other remedies that Genasys may have under this Agreement or otherwise, including, but not limited to, termination of this Agreement for cause. Additionally, if there are repeated incidences of suspension, regardless of the same or different cause and even if the cause or conduct is ultimately cured or corrected, Genasys may, in its reasonable discretion, determine that such circumstances, taken together, constitute a material breach.

2.0 SERVICES AND SUBSCRIBER CONTENT.

2.1 Setup Services. Genasys shall use commercially reasonable efforts to perform the Setup Services. Genasys and Subscriber shall cooperate to enable Genasys to perform the Setup Services according to the dates of performance and delivery terms set forth in the applicable quote. In addition, Subscriber shall perform any Subscriber obligations specified in the applicable quote for the Setup Services. In the event the Setup Services are not performed in material accordance with the terms of the applicable quote, Subscriber shall notify Genasys in writing no later than thirty (30) calendar days after performance of the affected Setup Services by Genasys. Subscriber’s notice shall specify the basis for non-compliance with the applicable quote for the Setup Services, and if Genasys agrees with the basis for non-compliance, then at Genasys sole option, Genasys shall re-perform the Setup Services at no additional charge to Subscriber or refund to Subscriber the applicable fees for the affected Setup Service. THE FOREGOING CONSTITUTES SUBSCRIBER’S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AND GENASYS’ SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO PERFORMANCE OR NON-PERFORMANCE OF THE SETUP SERVICES.

2.2 Updates. Genasys may update the Service from time to time. Updates to the Service will be made available to Subscriber at no additional charge, including any patches, enhancements, updates, upgrades, and new versions of the Software that Genasys makes generally commercially available to its customers without additional charge. Unless explicitly stated otherwise, any new features including any new services will be subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

2.3 Support. Genasys will provide Subscriber with 24/7 support for the Service, which is limited to telephonic and email support. Genasys will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide a response by a qualified technical team member to respond telephonic or via email for emergency support services within two (2) hours of receipt of such call. Subscriber may initiate a support services request by calling +1.858.676.1112 or by emailing support@genasys.com.

2.4 Service Availability.

2.4.1 General. Subscriber acknowledges that Genasys may perform any of its obligations and exercise any of its rights under this Agreement either directly or through one or more third parties designated by Genasys to provide the Service or portions thereof (each such third party, a "Service Provider").

2.4.2 Service Availability, Generally. Subject to this Agreement, the Service is hosted in a third-party provided cloud. The Service is designed with no single point of failure. Additionally, routine daily backups are performed to ensure data can be recovered from the previous 24 hours. Server redundancy will be used to minimize scheduled or planned downtime where practical. Genasys will keep Subscriber apprised of the schedule for any regularly recurring maintenance windows and Genasys will inform Subscriber of any other anticipated actual downtime at least 24 hours in advance. Actually scheduled or planned downtime will normally not exceed thirty (30) minutes, and will normally occur no more frequently than once a week.

2.4.3 Hardware Availability. The Service is hosted on a hardware platform, and the availability of such hardware platform is 99%, as measured on a quarterly basis, excluding commercially reasonable scheduled or planned downtime.

2.4.4 SMS Availability. Service uptime for SMS notifications sent through the Service will be 99%, measured on a quarterly basis, excluding scheduled or planned downtime.

2.4.5 Telephony Performance; Service Availability. The Service may provide for telephony service levels that assure the delivery of certain quantities of telephonic notifications within stated time limits ("SLA-Based Telephony Service"), which will be provided in accordance with the applicable provisions below:

(a) This Section 2.3.5(a) applies only to SLA-Based Telephony Service. Compliance with the delivery service level (or "SLA") provided for herein will be measured on a quarterly basis. SLA-Based Telephony Service will be considered satisfied if a first delivery attempt is made, within the applicable time limit for at least 99% of the requested telephonic notifications in that quarter, subject to the following exclusions. The following will not be considered when determining SLA compliance: (i) requested telephonic notifications beyond the quantities or delivery rates covered by this Agreement; (ii) telephonic notification requests with pre-defined calling rules or a scheduled delivery time; (iii) telephonic notification requests with escalation or other interactive rules for the job; and, (iv) telephonic notification requests that are subject to restrictions placed at the inbound point by Subscriber. The SLAs assume that the duration (or other applicable size measure) of each telephonic notification will not exceed the standard messaging length (or size) for that type of notification as specified in Genasys documentation (the "Standard Message Length"). For purposes of determining SLA compliance under this Section 2.3.5(a), longer or larger telephonic notifications will be counted as multiple notifications based on their actual duration or size in relation to the Standard Message Length. All telephonic notifications are subject to applicable messaging fees.

(b) In no event will Genasys be responsible for delivery failures of telephonic notifications resulting from: (i) busy, SIT (system interruption tone), or no-answer conditions; (ii) inbound call restrictions or limitations relating to the particular recipient; (iii) use of the Service via an unauthorized platform or in conflict with this Agreement (including Sections 2.3.5(a) and (b)); (iv) telecommunications failures resulting from or caused by Subscriber's, a recipient's, or any third-party carrier's network, equipment, system, employees, or agents; or, (v) any Force Majeure Event.

2.4.6 SMS, Electronic Mail and Genasys Mobile Push Notifications. The Service includes SMS, electronic mail messages and Genasys Push Notifications. SUBSCRIBER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT SUCH SMS, ELECTRONIC MAIL MESSAGES AND PUSH NOTIFICATIONS ARE PROVIDED WITH THE SERVICE ON AN "AS-IS" BASIS AND WITH NO SERVICE LEVEL GUARANTEE OR UPTIME AVAILABILITY ASSURANCE WHATSOEVER.

2.5 Changes to the Service. During the Term, Genasys may modify or delete any features of the Service, provided that such modifications or deletions do not have a material adverse impact on the Service. Genasys will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Subscriber in writing at least fifteen (15) days in advance of any such changes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Genasys may modify the Service, or substitute old features with new features that have similar or improved functionality, as may be necessary to meet any applicable legal, regulatory, or industry-standard requirements or demands.

2.6 Permitted Use of Subscriber Content. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that Subscriber Content and notifications will be transmitted to certain communication providers (i.e., mobile phone carriers, telecom carriers, SMS aggregators, cloud notification platforms, such as provided by Google and Apple) that are in the fulfillment path for the delivery of the Service. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that Genasys and its Service Providers are permitted to monitor the Service and Subscriber Content solely for purposes of fulfilling Genasys' obligations under this Agreement.

2.7 White List Indemnity. In connection with providing the Service, a Service Provider may request that Genasys block Subscriber's access to certain telephone numbers (the "Blocked Numbers") and, in such case, Genasys will deactivate access to such Blocked Numbers in connection with providing the Service further to such Service Provider's request(s). Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that, pursuant to a request by Subscriber, Genasys may provide Subscriber with the ability to unblock the Blocked Numbers, so that Subscriber may send communications to the Blocked Numbers via the Service. Subscriber represents and warrants that it has all rights, licenses and permits necessary to unblock, access and use the Blocked Numbers in the manner contemplated by this Agreement, and shall, at Genasys' or one of the Service Provider's request, from time to time, cooperate with Genasys or such Service Provider and produce evidence of such rights to any third party that in any way challenges the unblocking, access or use of the unblocked Blocked Numbers by Subscriber pursuant to this Agreement. In further consideration of the foregoing and to the extent permitted by applicable law, Subscriber shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Genasys and such Service Provider(s) from and against any and all claims, suits, proceedings, damages, costs and expenses, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or incurred with respect to the unblocking for, access and/or use of the Blocked Numbers by Subscriber pursuant to and in accordance with this Agreement.

2.7.1 Liability for Subscriber Content. Under no circumstances will Genasys or any of its licensors or suppliers be responsible for any loss, damage or liability arising out of any Subscriber Content of any notification sent through the Service, including without limitation any mistakes contained in any Subscriber Content or the use or transmission of such content using the Service.

3.0 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

3.1 Genasys Intellectual Property Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that all ownership and intellectual property rights in and relating to the Service and the Software are and shall at all times remain the sole and exclusive property of Genasys and its licensors and suppliers, as applicable.

3.2 Feedback. Subscriber is not required to provide any recommendations or feedback to Genasys regarding the Service. However, to the extent that Subscriber provides any recommendations or feedback to Genasys, Subscriber agrees that Genasys shall have, and Subscriber hereby does grant to Genasys, a perpetual, non-terminable, worldwide, royalty-free right and license to use, reproduce, modify, create derivative works of, display, import, disclose, distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend copies of, and otherwise utilize such recommendations or feedback without restriction.

3.3 Anonymized Usage Statistics. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that Genasys is free to use and disclose data and information relating to Subscriber's use of the Service in any aggregated or de-identified form created or compiled by Genasys ("Anonymized Usage Statistics"). As between Genasys and Subscriber, all right, title and interest in the Anonymized Usage Statistics and all intellectual property rights therein, belong to and are retained solely by Genasys. Without limiting the foregoing, Subscriber's agrees that Genasys may (a) make Anonymized Usage Statistics publicly available, (b) disclose Anonymized Usage Statistics to third parties, and (c) use Anonymized Usage Statistics for any purpose, including without limitation any analysis, Service enhancement or marketing.

3.4 Ownership of Subscriber Content. To provide the Service pursuant to this Agreement, Genasys may need to access Subscriber Content. Subject to the license granted to Genasys in Section 3.5 below, all Subscriber Content is and shall remain exclusive property of Subscriber and Subscriber and its licensors shall retain ownership of all copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights relating to or residing in any Subscriber Content.

3.5 License Grant to Subscriber Content. Subscriber hereby grants to Genasys (and its successors and affiliates) during the Term a worldwide, non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty-free, revocable license to use, reproduce, prepare derivative works, distribute, perform, display, and otherwise utilize Subscriber entered content in connection with the Service. This license will survive the termination of this agreement for all non-confidential Subscriber content.

4.0 FEES AND PAYMENT.

4.1 Fees. Fees for the Service are set forth in the quote provided to Subscriber by Genasys as Exhibit B of this agreement. Fees for the Service are based on the Service purchased, regardless of actual usage, and payment obligations are non-cancelable and fees paid are non-refundable.

4.2 Currency. Payments shall be made in United States currency. All references to "Dollars," "dollars," "U.S. $," or "$" shall mean United States dollars.

4.3 Payment. Fees for the Initial Term and each Extended Term are due and payable in advance. Additional fees incurred will be invoiced monthly during the Term.

4.4 Invoicing. The fees for the Initial Term are invoiced upon order; fees for each Extended Term will be invoiced no earlier than the renewal date. Payment of all invoices shall be made within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice.

4.5 Service Charge. Invoices paid after the due date shall be subject to a service charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month. It is expressly agreed and understood by the Parties that in no event shall the aggregate service charge exceed the maximum rate which can be charged under applicable law.

4.6 Suspension of the Service. If any amounts owed by Subscriber for the Service are ten (10) or more days overdue, Genasys may, without limiting Genasys' other rights and remedies, suspend Subscriber's and its Users' access to the Service until such amounts are paid in full.

5.0 TAXES. Fees due under this Agreement do not include taxes of any kind, including without limitation sales, use, excise, value added tax, or any import, export or similar tax or duties levied upon the Service which Genasys may incur in respect of this Agreement (all of which for the purposes of this Section referred to as "taxes"). In addition to any other payments due under this Agreement, Subscriber hereby agrees to pay and hold Genasys harmless from any and all taxes that Genasys may incur under this Agreement under the applicable tax regulation at the time of invoicing. To the extent applicable, if Subscriber has a direct pay permit, an exemption certificate, a resale certificate applicable to this Agreement, or any other permit or certificate that affects Genasys' payment of the aforementioned taxes then Subscriber will provide Genasys with a copy of this permit or certificate upon the execution of this Agreement. Subscriber will not be required to pay any gross receipts tax or income tax levied or imposed against Genasys' income.

6.0 TERM, TERMINATION, AND SUSPENSION.

6.1 Term. This Agreement will commence on the initial access to the Service by Subscriber (the "Effective Date") and will continue in full force and effect for a period of three (3) year thereafter (the "Initial Term"). This Agreement is renewable for successive one (1) year terms following the expiration of the Initial Term upon written notice of renewal by Subscriber to Genasys 30 days in advance of an Extended Term (each such successive one (1) year term, an "Extended Term" and together with the Initial Term, the "Term") pursuant to the terms hereof with any changes or modifications as may be mutually agreed upon by the Parties in writing. Subject to the provisions of this Section, Subscriber may terminate this agreement upon the anniversary date(s) of this agreement in the unlikely event that they lose funding to continue the subscription and either Party may terminate this Agreement by providing advance written notice of its intent not to renew this Agreement not less than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or any Extended Term.

6.2 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' advance written notice of a material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within the thirty (30) day following the notice period. Upon any termination of this Agreement for cause by Genasys, Subscriber shall pay any unpaid fees covering the remainder of the Term after the effective date of termination. In no event shall any termination relieve Subscriber of the obligation to pay any fees payable to Genasys for the period prior to the effective date of termination.

6.3 Suspension. Genasys reserves the right to suspend network access to Subscriber if, in the reasonable judgment of Genasys or one of its Service Providers, Subscriber's server is the source or target of a violation of any of the other terms of this Terms or any Applicable Laws. Genasys will use reasonable care in notifying the Subscriber and in resolving the problem in a method resulting in the least amount of interference with the Service. If inappropriate activity is detected, all relevant accounts of the Subscriber will be deactivated until an investigation is completed. Prior notification to the Subscriber is not assured. In extreme cases, law enforcement may be contacted regarding the activity.

6.4 Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, the Service and the Software will no longer be available to Subscriber, and Subscriber will promptly return to Genasys the originals and all copies of the Software in Subscriber's possession, custody or control, if any. In addition, upon termination of this Agreement, each Party, as Receiving Party, and at its own expense, will promptly, at the Disclosing Party's direction, either return to the Disclosing Party or destroy (with a certification of destruction transmitted to the Disclosing Party) any and all written, electronic or other tangible materials embodying or reflecting the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information (and all copies, extracts, and summaries thereof) in the Receiving Party's possession or control. Termination of this Agreement will not limit either Party from pursuing any other remedies available to it, including injunctive relief, nor will such termination relieve Subscriber of its obligation to pay all fees that accrued or became payable under this Agreement prior to the effective date of termination.

7.0 CONFIDENTIALITY.

7.1 Confidentiality Obligations. Each Party acknowledges it may receive Confidential Information from the other Party. The Receiving Party shall keep confidential all Confidential Information received by it from or on behalf of the Disclosing Party until such information ceases to constitute Confidential Information under applicable law). The Receiving Party shall not use the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information other than as expressly permitted under this Agreement. The Receiving Party shall take all reasonable steps to prevent unauthorized disclosure or use of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information and to prevent such information from falling into the public domain or into the possession of unauthorized persons. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to any person other than the Receiving Party's officers, employees, or contractors who need access to such Confidential Information in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, and who have entered into written confidentiality agreements which protect the Confidential Information sufficient to enable the Receiving Party to comply with this Section or are otherwise subject to duties of confidentiality. The Receiving Party shall promptly give notice to the Disclosing Party of any known unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information. The Receiving Party agrees to assist the Disclosing Party as reasonably necessary to remedy such unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information.

7.2 Exclusions to Obligations. The obligations set forth in Section 7.1 shall not apply to the extent that Confidential Information includes information which the Receiving Party can reasonably demonstrate: (i) is now or hereafter, through no unauthorized act or failure to act on the Receiving Party part, publicly known and generally available in the public domain; (ii) was known to the Receiving Party without an obligation of confidentiality at the time the Receiving Party receives the same, as evidenced by written records; (iii) is hereafter furnished to the Receiving Party by a third party as a matter of right and without restriction on disclosure; or (iv) was independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of the Confidential Information.

7.3 Required Disclosure.
