N ☐ Y ☒ N/A ☐ (b) If yes, please describe: During internal quality control reviews of Housing Quality Standards (HQS) files around June 2023, it was noted that documentation extensions for repairs were lacking. This deficiency can be attributed to two main factors: firstly, the Housing Authority reinstated physical inspections following a COVID-19-related waiver that allowed inspections to be postponed in 2021 and 2022; secondly, due to the introduction of new staff handling HQS inspections during this period, there was a gap in understanding internal tracking processes necessary for documenting inspection follow-ups on a large scale. Staff underwent retraining on these procedures in August 2023 during a staff meeting. Management continues to conduct ongoing internal quality control reviews to ensure compliance with HQS regulations at the Housing Authority.

B.3 Progress Report Attachment

Goal 1: Expand and increase the supply of assisted housing choices:

- Reviewed and increased payment standards for all bedroom units effective January 1, 2025 to ensure families have a reasonable selection of housing in a range of neighborhoods, allowing families to rent units in more desirable areas.
- Continued to administer the Section 8 Homeownership Program through October 2024

Goal 2: Improve the quality of assisted housing and customer service:

- Continued reviewing and updating current procedures and implementing improvements to the participant file process.
- Provided on-going trainings/guidance to staff on HUD regulation updates, program guidelines, rules and procedures.
- Continued to streamline administrative processes to make forms easier to complete as well as posting forms and program information on the SCHA website.

Goal 3: Provide an improved living environment

- Continued to conduct outreach to build relationships with owners, affordable housing resource agencies, neighborhood centers and social services agencies whose mission is to improve neighborhoods, provide affordable housing and provide access to social services, recreation and educational opportunities.
- Continued to promote and encourage families to move to higher income areas and to provide updated citywide apartment and realtor listings.

Goal 4: Promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted households:

- Encouraged all program participants to enroll in the Family Self-Sufficiency Program without limiting the number of eligible families.
- The Self-Help Center continued to be available for participants to apply for jobs and access a variety of programs and supportive services that promote self-sufficiency.
- Provided referrals to elderly and disabled families to organizations that provide supportive services for senior and disabled persons.

Goal 5: Ensure equal opportunity and Affirmatively Further Fair Housing:

- Informed participants of Fair Housing rights.
- Staff attended Fair Housing Training provided by HUD and Fair Housing Advocates of Northern California
- Promoted Fair Housing on April 18, 2024 by conducting a Landlord Fair housing Workshop in collaboration with staff from HUD's FHEO and Legal Services of Northern California.
- Promoted Fair Housing during Fair Housing month by holding a Fair Housing coloring contest for youth participating in afterschool programs.
- Assisted households with disabled household members find suitable housing and provided a listing of accessible units.
- Provided translation of vital documents in Spanish.
- Continued training on updated Fair Housing rules to ensure that access to assisted housing is provided regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, marital status, ancestry, source of income or arbitrary discrimination.

The SCHA was accepted into Department of Housing and urban Development's (HUD) Moving-to-Work (MTW) demonstration. Participation in the demonstration provides the SCHA with the ability to make the best use of existing program funds to assist Solano County's very-low and low-income residents to obtain safe, decent and affordable housing. The MTW activities planned are:

- Reexaminations – SCHA has transitioned to requiring reexaminations every 36 months for families in which at least 90 percent of income is from a fixed source.
- Self-Certification of Assets: The SCHA increased the value of family assets and anticipated asset income, when applicable. The SCHA now accepts the family's self-certification from $5,000 or less to $50,000 or less. All assets valued over $50,000 continue to require 3rd party verification.
- Initial Rent Burden – In October 2022, The SCHA increased the 40 percent affordability cap to 50 percent at initial lease-up in order to increase housing choice for low-income households.
- Landlord Leasing Incentives – By combining the activities available under the Landlord leasing Incentives category, the SCHA launched it's Landlord Incentive Program (LIP) in May 2024. The LIP is aimed at expanding rental opportunities for families holding housing choice vouchers by making landlord participation in the program more attractive. The LIP will provide financial incentives to landlords who rent to housing choice voucher participants in the form of vacancy payments, damage claims funds, and additional lease-up incentives to landlords with new units.
- Housing Qualify Standards – In conjunction with the LIP, the SCHA will conduct pre-qualifying unit inspections for landlords that are willing to participate in the program but have not yet identified an eligible tenant. Conducting pre- qualifying inspections supports the recruitment of new landlords and units as well as retaining existing units within the portfolio of available housing.

D.1 AFFIRMATIVELY FURTHER FAIR HOUSING

- Continue to inform participants of their Fair Housing rights and assist with the Fair Housing complaint process upon request.
- Continue to promote Fair Housing during Fair Housing month.

- Provide translation of vital documents in Spanish.
- Continue training on updated Fair Housing rules to ensure that access to assisted housing is provided regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, marital status, ancestry, source of income or arbitrary discrimination.
- Conduct at least one Landlord Workshop to recruit and educate landlords, including training in Fair Housing.
