

2017 Homeland Security Grant Program (HSGP) Projects

The Solano HSGP Approval Authority Body, composed of the Solano County Sheriff, the County Public Health Officer, the Fairfield City Fire Chief, the Vacaville Fire Protection District Chief, and the Vallejo City Police Chief designates the following projects receive funding from the Solano County 2017 HSGP. Total allocation is $510,683.

| Budget Cost | Team/Unit | Description | Solution |
|-------------|--|--|--|
| $10,000 | Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) | The five participating CERT teams in the Operational Area are an active and vital force in the community and maintain a high level of emergency preparedness and response capability so to be ever-ready to address any future hazards. | Training and Equipment - CERT Team basic academy training and personal protective equipment - CERT kits including gas masks, gloves, goggles, hard hats, etc. |
| $40,000 | HazMat Team (HazMat) | A state certified, multi-agency team, made up of more than 20 members from local fire agencies and law enforcement, aide with hazardous material threats within Solano County and adjacent counties. | Training and Equipment - HazMat Team continuing challenge training and logistical support equipment |
| $40,000 | Urban Search and Rescue Team (USAR) | This team of 48 firefighters from Benicia, Dixon, Fairfield, Vacaville and Vallejo provide search and rescue support for missing people, evidence search, disaster assistance and public education, etc. | Training and Equipment - USAR Team training and personal protective equipment |
| $8,356 | Benicia Fire Department | This team of 48 firefighters from Benicia, Dixon, Fairfield, Vacaville and Vallejo provide search and rescue support for missing people, evidence search, disaster assistance and public education, etc. | Training – FEMA approved rescue system training to support Benicia USAR team response capabilities, Hosted by Benicia Fire Department, open to all agencies |
| $20,000 | Swift Water Rescue Team (SWRT) | Team members perform search and rescue missions in white water river conditions and stand ready to assist in situations occurring in our waterways during normal and flood conditions. | Training and Equipment - Swift Water Rescue Team training and personal protective equipment |
| $7,872 | Benicia Fire Department | Team members perform search and rescue missions in white water river conditions and stand ready to assist in situations occurring in our waterways during normal and flood conditions. | Training – SWRT training to enhance response capabilities, mutual aid availability by training in local waterways. Hosted by Benicia Fire Department, open to all agencies |
| $5,000 | Vacaville Police Department | To contribute to a radio interoperability study by Vacaville Police Department. This project will partially fund a multi-agency sponsored communications consultant contract to determine the most efficient steps to bring trunked radio communications to all parts of Solano County | Radio interoperability study |
| $34,115 | Benicia Fire Department | Enhance interoperable communications in the City of Benicia with agencies in Solano, Contra Costa and Alameda counties | Equipment – multi-band portable radios to enhance adjacent county communication |
| $148,000 | Fairfield Fire Department | Fairfield Fire Department to safely transport team members, tow the USAR trailer, and tow vital equipment which will increase response capabilities and improve incident response time. | Equipment – USAR vehicle to enhance improve transportation of first responders and equipment |

| | | | |
|------------------|--------------------------------|---|--|
| $63,000 | Fairfield Fire Department | Mobile emergency management simulation table for the Fairfield Fire Department which will enable users to access geographical information system data and current technology to simulate and model disaster scenarios for teaching, testing and improving first responder capabilities. | Equipment – Simulation table |
| $6,665 | Solano County Sheriff's Office | Team members perform mass search and rescue missions for missing people, evidence search, disaster assistance, and public education, etc. The dedicated trailer would increase responsiveness by eliminating the lead time required to find a transport for the ATV. | Equipment – Trailer dedicated to ATV transport |
| $127,675 | Solano County Sheriff's Office | ALPR cameras for the Solano County Sheriff's Office which will be deployed at major County avenues of entrance and egress and allow public safety personnel the opportunity to record and review the motor vehicle activity at pre-established locations. The direct and accurate surveillance supports identification of vehicles associated with terrorist or criminal activity. | Equipment – ALPR cameras to track vehicular activity |
| $510,683 | Total Grant Allocation | | |