 B - Federal Legislative Update
 Minute Order

Legislative, Intergovernmental and Public Affairs Officer Michelle Heppner provided an overview of AB 1971 (Santiago) Mental health services: involuntary detention: gravely disabled.

In response to a question from Chair Vasquez, Ms. Heppner provided information on other legislation that concerned conservatorship.

Supervisor Brown commented on the likelihood that one of the pieces of legislation would move forward.

In response to a question from Supervisor Spering, Ms. Heppner advised that a comprehensive analysis had not been done on the costs and impacts on the County as a result of the legislation.

County Administrator Birgitta Corsello advised that the Whole Person Care initiative was looking at the top users in the hospital and jail systems and what the current costs and future costs of providing care for those individuals looked like.

Supervisor Spering commented on the importance of looking at the mandates.

Chair Vasquez commented on the importance of looking at the entire costs and involvement by all parties in the care of the individuals.

Mr. Yoder advised that Los Angeles County and San Francisco County had both conducted studies on this and noted that he would provide this information to the Board.

Director of Health and Social Services Gerald Huber provided information on the Whole Person Care initiative.

In response to a question from Chair Vasquez, Mr. Yoder noted that he would provide the cost of the Los Angeles County and the San Francisco County studies to the Board.

Chair Vasquez invited members of the public to address the Board on this matter and the following comments were received:

A) Linda Privatte, Vacaville, read a letter from Catherine Hanson in support of AB 1971 and concerns about her brother Mark Rippee.

B) Linda Privatte, Vacaville commented in support of AB 1971 and concerns about her brother Mark Rippee.

C) Betty Plowman, Vacaville, commented on responses from businesses concerning Mark Rippee.

D) Lou Rippee, Vacaville, commented on concerns for the welfare of her son Mark Rippee and in support of AB 1971.

E) George Guynn, Jr., Suisun City, commented on taxpayer costs and moderation of regional government.

Supervisor Hannigan commented on concerns from the speakers, the number of residents in the County that could fall under the umbrella of AB 1971.

Deputy Director Behavioral Health Sandra Sinz provided information on AB 1971 concerning chronic or gravely disabled individuals.

Mr. Huber noted that the state of California lacked services for traumatic brain injuries and that funding was needed for legislation.

Mr. Yoder provided information on legislation for homelessness.

Supervisor Hannigan made a motion to support AB 1971 if it included capacity building and funding.

Supervisor Brown made a substitute motion to take a watch position on AB 1971.

Supervisor Spering seconded the substitute motion and commented on concerns with funding.

In response to a question from Chair Vasquez, Mr. Yoder provided information on AB 1045 that focused on housing conservatorship.

In response to a question from Supervisor Brown, Mr. Yoder noted that the homelessness legislation package was written to include one-time funding that was flexible over a couple of years. He advised that it was not a permanent source of funding.

Supervisor Brown commented that there was recognition of the need for the legislation and on the importance of balancing budgets.

Mr. Huber noted that AB 1045 was geared towards Los Angeles County.

Mr. Yoder advised that other counties were likely to join the legislation.

Chair Vasquez commented on the need to help individuals get off the street and to respect their rights.

Supervisor Brown clarified that the motion was to take a watch and seek amendments position.

On motion of Supervisor Brown, seconded by Supervisor Spering, the Board approved a watch with amendments position for AB 1971 (Santiago) Mental health services: involuntary detention: gravely disabled. So ordered by 4-0 vote.

Ms. Heppner provided an overview of AB 998 (Grayson) Multidisciplinary teams: human trafficking and domestic violence.

Supervisor Hannigan commented on programs and services already in place that were much broader than what the legislation proposed.

On motion of Supervisor Hannigan, seconded by Supervisor Brown, the Board approved a watch position for AB 998 (Grayson) Multidisciplinary teams: human trafficking and domestic violence. So ordered by 4-0 vote.

Mr. Yoder provided an overview of the state budget and legislation of interest to the County.

 Minute Order

Human Resources Director Mark Fox introduced the item.

Assistant County Administrator Nancy Huston provided an overview of the County's pension funding policy.

Vice-President of Bartel and Associates Doug Pryor provided an overview of projected long-term Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) costs for the County.

In response to a question from Supervisor Brown, Mr. Pryor provided information on the unfunded liability payoff period.

In response to questions from Chair Vasquez, Mr. Pryor noted that the projections did not include growth in the number of employee positions but did include a 3% payroll increase per year.

Mr. Fox noted that the 3% increase was a CalPERS projection and that the County's projection was dependent on labor negotiations.

Mr. Pryor provided an overview of alternative contribution scenarios for pension contributions.

Ms. Huston provided an overview of potential funding sources and recommendations from the Pension Advisory Committee.

Chair Vasquez commented on the commitment from the Board to get to the 90% funded status for pensions over time and the need to memorialize the goal.

Ms. Huston advised that the Board needs to look at this annually because of competing needs for funding.

Auditor-Controller Simona Padilla-Scholtens provided information on the County's actions to be proactive regarding pension contributions.

Treasurer-Tax Collector-County Clerk Chuck Lomeli commented on the need to pay the debt faster to save more in the future and to look at this issue annually.

Chair Vasquez commented on the need for a strong statement of vigilance and flexibility to maintain the goal into the future.

Ms. Padilla-Scholtens commented on amortization bases and unfunded liability costs.

Mr. Lomeli commented on reduction of amortizations, noting that there was flexibility in which amortizations to reduce.

Mr. Fox commented on the Board's past actions to work on the unfunded liability issue.

Ms. Corsello commented on the Pension Advisory Committee's recommendations.

Supervisor Hannigan commented on the need to work out an agreement with the courts regarding separation of court employee pensions from the County's pension plan.

Ms. Huston noted that changes in amortization would affect the court employee rates.

Ms. Padilla-Scholtens provided information about the separation of the court employees from the County's pension plan. She advised that rates would go up for both the County and the courts depending on the reduction in amortization and that the County would carry the bulk of the increase. She then commented on the need for the courts to fully separate from the County's pension plan.

Supervisor Hannigan commented on the need for the courts to separate from the County's plan.

Ms. Corsello advised that a majority of the Board would need to direct staff to work out the issue with the court. She advised that the courts were struggling with their budget and that there would be direct impacts on services such as those in the jails if costs were to increase. She advised that it was something to strive towards but that the courts did not have a budget to cover increases for the next fiscal year.

Supervisor Brown commented on the need for a history and background of the activities and past actions by the Board concerning the issue.

In response to questions from Supervisor Spering, Ms. Huston advised that unfunded liabilities were based on current and past employees. Mr. Fox advised that the size of government did not affect the unfunded liability payment. Mr. Pryor provided information on future hires and noted that there could be a phase out over time. Ms. Padilla-Scholtens provided information on CalPERS projections regarding the amortization base into the next 30 years. Ms. Huston advised that additional employees hired in the future would increase payroll and therefore increase pension costs.

Supervisor Spering asked that impacts from increases in the number of employees be included in the future discussions.

Chair Vasquez invited members of the public to address the Board on this matter and the following comments were received:

A) George Guynn, Jr., Suisun City, commented on the need to reduce unfunded liabilities and separate court employees from the County's plan.

On motion of Supervisor Spering, seconded by Supervisor Brown, the Board approved an Appropriation Transfer Request (ATR) increasing appropriations by $6.6 Million in the respective funds for an additional payment to the CalPERS Public Safety Plan unfunded liability account funded by the General Fund CalPERS Rate Reserve. So ordered by 4-0 vote

RECESS

This meeting of the Solano County Board of Supervisors recessed at 12:45 P.M. and reconvened at 12:56 P.M. Present were Supervisors Hannigan, Brown and Spering and Chair Vasquez. Supervisor Thomson was excused. Chair Vasquez presided.

Receive a presentation of Health and Social Services' five year financial forecasts for Mental Health and Health Services

Attachments: Minute Order

Principal Management Analyst Debbie Vaughn and Health and Social Services Director of Administrative Services Tess Lapira provided an overview of Health and Social Services' five year financial forecasts for Mental Health and Health Services.

In response to comments from Chair Vasquez, Ms. Lapira noted that foster parents would be trained to provide certain mental health services. Director of Health and Social Services Gerald Huber noted that a mandate of Continuum of Care was that every foster child must be assessed for mental health and that foster parents provide mental health services. He advised that the foster parent could bill Medi-Cal for this service.

In response to a question from Chair Vasquez, County Administrator Birgitta Corsello noted that the General Fund contribution to the Mental Health budget varied and depended on whether there was a mandated maintenance of effort or a share of cost agreement for certain programs.

Supervisor Brown suggested using the Workforce Development Board to provide services for Workforce Education and Training (WET) program.

Mr. Huber advised that this would need to be looked into further.

Deputy Director of Health and Social Services - Behavioral Health Sandra Sinz advised that there were no more new WET funds and that rollover funds from CSS were being used for the program.

In response to a comment from Supervisor Brown, Ms. Corsello noted that improving staff alignment could improve the number of patient encounters eligible for reimbursement.

Mr. Huber provided an overview of H&SS fiscal issues and challenges.

Ms. Corsello noted that Solano County was one of a few counties that had a five year forecast and that CSAC was asking for these types of forecasts from counties to assist them with future discussions about programs with the state. She then noted that the governor was repurposing MHSA funds for other programs and that new funds were being provided to support current programs.

In response to a question from Chair Vasquez, Mr. Huber provided information on adult foster care.

Ms. Corsello commented that the Coalition for Better Health board recognized that there was a need to figure out how to leverage the medical training program.

Supervisor Hannigan commented on the need to look at ways to ensure patients attend their appointments.

Deputy Director of H&SS Medical Services Dr. Michael Stacy provided information on the division's efforts to provide reminder calls to the patients and to fill appointments.

Supervisor Hannigan suggested looking at what the causes of what missed appointments were and what the solutions would be to improve the rate of patients attending their appointments.

Mr. Huber commented on the need to educate people on how to use health care appropriately.

Dr. Stacy provided additional information on the division's efforts to decrease the appointment no-show rates.

Ms. Vaughn noted that the five-year forecast team had conducted a detailed analysis on the appointment rates and was already working on this issue.

Dr. Stacy provided information on vacancies of physicians and the difficulties of providing services due to those vacancies.

Ms. Corsello commented on strategies to reduce the gap of the available resources and options and noted that this was still being worked on.

Mr. Huber commented on the need to develop community and regional capacity.

Chair Vasquez commented on the importance of educating people about medical care.
