

The map shows the town of Rockville, Oregon, with its surrounding area. The town is located in the center-right of the map, with a dense residential area. The Suisun Valley Creek flows through the town, and the Suisun Valley Rd runs along the creek. The proposed Rockville Community Center is marked with a red dot near the intersection of Rockville Rd and Suisun Valley Rd. Other roads shown include SR-12, SR-17, and SR-18. The map also shows the location of the Rockville Community Center relative to the town and the creek.
