Authorize the Registrar of Voters to conduct a mail-ballot election for the Travis Unified School District Special Election on Tuesday, March 3, 2015

Published Notice Required? Yes No
Public Hearing Required? Yes No

DEPARTMENTAL RECOMMENDATION:

The Registrar of Voters (ROV) recommends that the Board of Supervisors authorize the ROV to conduct a special all mail-ballot election for the Travis Unified School District, Trustee Area 1 on Tuesday, March 3, 2015.

SUMMARY:

The Travis Unified School District has requested that the ROV conduct the District's special election on March 3, 2015 by all mail-ballot to fill one (1) vacancy on the District's governing board for a term expiration of December 7, 2018. The District's governing board adopted resolution number S14-15-01 on October 17, 2014 that calls for an election of one governing board member. The Travis Unified School District adopted resolution number 2014-15-27 on November 4, 2014 requesting the election be conducted by all mail-ballot.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

The estimated cost for ROV to conduct the special mail ballot election for Travis Unified School District on March 3, 2015 is $58,938. The County will be reimbursed by the Travis Unified School District and there will be no impact to the County General Fund.

DISCUSSION:

A special stand-alone election will be held on Tuesday, March 3, 2015 and will include Trustee Area #1 for the Travis Unified School District. This election is required due to a vacancy created by resignation of a board member. ROV and the Solano County Office of Education following California Education Code §5091 have scheduled this election based on the next available date prescribed by Elections Code §1000.

ALTERNATIVES:

The Board of Supervisors could deny this request; however Elections Code §10002 allows the District to request the election to be handled by the Registrar of Voters.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

ROV has reviewed the resolution and related paperwork from the Solano County Office of Education and the Travis Unified School District.
