C) Sarah Dunn commented in support of the recommended action.

Chair Mashburn closed the public hearing.

Supervisor Williams thanked staff for their hard work on this ordinance.

Chair Mashburn thanked staff for their hard work on this ordinance. Chair Mashburn voiced concerns of a loophole in the State law that allows energy companies to bypass local land use authority by seeking approval directly from the California Energy Commission (CEC). Chair Mashburn announced that the CEC will hold a public hearing on a BESS project and recommended residents attend to share their concerns.

On motion of Supervisor Vasquez, seconded by Supervisor Williams, the Board: 1) approved reading the proposed ordinance amending Chapter 28 of the Solano County Code relating to the revision and update of regulations pertaining to Battery Energy Storage Systems within unincorporated Solano County by title only and waived further reading by a majority vote; and 2) adopted Ordinance No. 2025-1864, Zone Text Amendment No. ZT-25-02 amending Chapter 28 of the Solano County Code to revise and update regulations pertaining to Battery Energy Storage Systems within unincorporated Solano County. So ordered by a 5-0 vote.

BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS AND REPORTS ON MEETINGS

Chair Mashburn invited members of the Board to make comments or reports on meetings. The following comments were received:

A) Supervisor James announced that her office will host a Spanish-language community service webinar featuring a panel on available resources and services regardless of immigration status. Supervisor James also provided clarification regarding the recent California State Association of Counties (CSAC) visit and tour in Solano County, explaining the planning process, attendees, and key discussion topics, which included workforce development, economic diversity, shipbuilding, and community safety. Supervisor James noted that scheduling conflicts limited the tour, though several key county sites were visited.

Supervisor James also reported meeting with local officials and community organizations to discuss potential impacts of a federal government shutdown on CalFresh recipients, citing a significant increase in food distribution needs countywide.

B) Supervisor Brown stated she voted.

C) Supervisor Williams reported hosting a town hall meeting focused on the "Big Beautiful Bill" and its impacts on County residents. Supervisor Williams stated multiple County departments participated to share information with the community, and her staff organized the event, including providing resources on local food access. Supervisor Williams announced that the next town hall will be held on November 18, 2025 at 5:30 p.m. at the Fairfield Civic Center Library, focusing on the bill's effects on health care and upcoming funding cuts, noting the event will include community partners, nonprofits, and County agencies, and is open to both the public and Board members.

D) Chair Mashburn reminded everyone that the polls are open and encouraged everyone to go out and vote.
