Health and Social Services may need to adjust its fees charged to clients during the year as reimbursement rates from Medi-Cal, Medicare or other third party payers change, actual cost per unit information becomes available, or as the volume of services rendered changes to allow us to recover more of our actual costs. Any new procedures added during the fiscal year will be based on existing or established methodologies for setting rates. If actual costs for services, procedures or supply items increase, H&SS may elect to pass the increased cost on to the client.
