

Resolution No. 2026-

RESOLUTION OF THE SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HONORING CRYSTAL RILEY, SUPERVISING DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER, UPON HER RETIREMENT FROM THE SOLANO COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT WITH 21 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE

WHEREAS, Crystal Riley began her employment with the Solano County Probation Department as Deputy Probation Officer on March 21, 2005. She was promoted to Senior Deputy Probation Officer on November 23, 2014, and to Supervising Deputy Probation Officer on May 20, 2018; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Riley provided 21 years of service to the Solano County community, serving in a wide range of assignments within the department, applying caring support and supervision to clients, and leadership and professionalism to staff in Solano County; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Riley was influential in many ways and through different assignments in the Adult and Juvenile Divisions. Early in her career, she worked in various capacities in the Adult Court Investigations Unit, Adult General Supervision, Juvenile Supervision, Juvenile Sex Offender Supervision, and New Foundations. She was a facilitator of cognitive behavioral groups (Crossroads and Motivational Interviewing) and a department trainer for CE Assessments. Later, Ms. Riley's passion for transforming lives, rehabilitation, and the restoration of victims/survivors led her to a career in services and programming, specifically at the Center for Positive Change and the Collaborative Specialty Court Units: Domestic Violence and Veteran and Drug Courts. The latter part of Ms. Riley's career was most rewarding and ultimately led her to a fulfilling profession; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Riley has impacted the lives of many throughout her probation career, in her role as a probation officer, leader, colleague, trainer, and mentor. Her contributions extend beyond her work with clients on her caseload. Her commitment to public service and the safety of the community was noticeable in her leadership. Her staff and peers could count on her encouragement and support. Her welcoming approach and pleasant personality fostered a collaborative working environment with peers, stakeholders, and community partners; and

WHEREAS, as Ms. Riley enters retirement, she leaves behind not only a career of notable public service and a commitment to transforming lives, rehabilitation, restoration, and public safety, but a lasting impression on colleagues, community, and the department. She leaves behind a meaningful legacy that will be remembered.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Supervisors hereby honors and recognizes Crystal Riley for her 21 years of dedicated service to the citizens of Solano County, and wishes her success in her future endeavors and a long, happy, healthy, and well-deserved retirement.
